
One curve per relative-position decile; first/last share a y range within each arm. Last is BEFORE the final optimizer operation.