
Each point is one training fold; a larger function change is not a free gain.